

aka PREROGATIVE

Talking on these waves conjoins, as on a telephone, with consistency, since action is amoral or independent: (there is a Faustian offer in each manifesto)
no boxer spars with only air, when called upon for an impromptu possibility, which he barely experiences and much less understands (and every system with its hollow stem).
Is it not true
the actualization of a method subverts what occurred before, the sum of which connects inextricably not to some old galaxy, but to all that is and is before?
